The DMV permit test manual lacks virtually any images, it is filled with pages of fine print, with paragraphs crammed so close together you will have trouble telling one chapter from the other. Even road signs and study sheets are black and white, and you are expected to learn how to differentiate road signs not only by their shape, but also by their color. You are definitely better off studying road signs elsewhere, as the book does not really make it easy for you. Fifty pages of road rules, defensive driving techniques, road signs and pavement markings, and we get 10 study questions to help us learn all that. But seriously read the manual along with doing the practice tests. Use the app the questions asked are similar to these then the online practice tests Passed with 2 wrong I didn't want to fail so I read the manual and use the app for practice test. My test was at Willimantic ct it was not full but staff was slow. The staff I met was pleasant and nice. When I took the test 80% of the questions are on this app that you will get at the dmV. The remaining questions you'll have to read from the book. By the time I was at question 22 the system cut me off and said I passed. So I assumed that once you got 20 right answers your done. I got 20 right and 2 incorrect. The best way to pass the learners test is to use this app and read the manual. Both of them really help. You can't go wrong. This app definitely helped me a lot. About 80% of the questions in the 3 practice tests in this app were on the official permit test at the DMV. I suggest reading the whole CT drivers manual and then practicing using this app.

Try to get 100% for each practice test and you'll definitely be set. Good luck guys you'll be fine. Don't over think the questions. Some of them are common sense. Or call 1800MYAPPLE.
